

Historical Commission Meeting 9/01/21

- In lieu of a formal meeting, the members of the Sharpsburg Historical Commission individually attended the virtual talk “Kurt and Edith Leuchter - A Story of Love and Resilience”. This presentation features the stories of two Holocaust survivors who spent their adult lives in the Fox Chapel area. The Commission attended this event for continuing education on local history.